

North Texas Polymer Clay Guild
September 2018 Meeting
Susan Detwiler: Wearable Personal Mini Shrines

Supply List

- ❖ Work Surface
- ❖ Pasta Machine
- ❖ Basic Polymer Clay Tools such as standard blades, x-acto knife, scissors, needle tool, acrylic rods, plastic deli wrap, printer/patty paper, etc.

- ❖ Basic Jewelry Making Tools such as round nose pliers, chain nose pliers, wire cutters, etc.

- ❖ Jewelry Findings (your choice for brooches, etc.)
 - Eye Pins
 - Jump Rings
 - Pinbacks
 - Beads (spacer beads, glass beads, etc.)

- ❖ Polymer Clay
 - 2 oz. of Metallic Clay of your choice
 - 1 oz. of White (White, Ecru, Translucent, Mix of Translucent/White, Pearl, etc.) Clay
 - 2 oz. of Black Clay
 - 1 oz. of Red Clay
 - Small amounts of other colors that you prefer
 - Liquid Clay: Translucent or Clear. If you're using Kato liquid clay, and you have the colored liquid clays you may wish to bring that as well.
 - Note: Susan prefers Kato solid and liquid clay and recommends it for this project. However, Premo can be used and she will be bringing an extra oven so that we can bake both Premo and Kato clays. Please bring either Premo or Kato clays.

- ❖ Other Supplies
 - 2 ft. of 20g Wire in the color of your choice
 - Alcohol Inks (Susan will share hers so don't purchase any if you don't already have it)
 - Tile or index card for baking
 - Ball Styluses, small sizes, up to ¼"
 - Toothpicks or something else "pointy"
 - Small paintbrush for liquid clay
 - Personal icon sizes ¼" to 1-1/2" in size: This is a thing regarded as a representative symbol of something. This can be anything from a tiny dried leaf to a religious symbol to an old earring or charm. This item can also be made from clay either ahead of time or on the spot. It should have meaning to you or could be something you like or find beauty within. It must also be able to withstand clay baking temperatures.

- ❖ Optional Supplies
 - Crystals
 - Seed Beads
 - Embossing Powder in Black or Earthy Colors
 - Any other tiny/small decorative bits you wish to bring
 - Metallic Leaf in the color of your choice
 - Note: Susan will bring drop type beads in various colors and acrylic paint for finishing
